What Is Planned Giving?

Planned Gifts refer to charitable gifts that are arranged with forethought and are established for a period of time. Planned Gifts are a popular method of giving because they can provide significant tax benefits and sources of income for the donor.

Planned giving can include:
- charitable planned gifts such as annuities
- bequests in wills
- naming Stony Point Center as beneficiary of a retirement plan or insurance policy

An Easy Way to Give to SPC — Language for Your Will

I ________________, hereby give, devise and bequest to Stony Point Center, a conference center of the Presbyterian Church (USA), located at 17 Cricketown Road, Stony Point, NY 10980, the amount of $______________ or ______________% of my estate.

Bequests

Bequests made through a will provide future income for the mission of the Center, either through an endowment or a gift to the operating budget. Your support will allow Stony Point Center to continue to expand our programs and campus improvements. You may make a charitable bequest in your will, or an addition to your will, known as a codicil.

Charitable Gift Annuities

A simple agreement that lasts over your lifetime and offers a fixed rate on income.
- The payout rate is determined by your date of birth.
- A portion of your income is tax free.
- You are entitled to a charitable deduction.
- Stocks and bonds may be used to establish a charitable gift annuity.

If stocks and bonds are used, the capital gains are pro-rated over the donor’s lifetime. A portion of your gift will support Stony Point Center following your lifetime.

The charitable gift annuity is an irrevocable contract and in most states can be administered by the Presbyterian Church (USA) Foundation. Further information and sample plans are available upon request at no obligation.

Charitable Remainder Unitrusts

With this Planned Gift, you transfer property (cash, stocks, bonds, or real estate) to a trust. You and other persons designated will be paid income for your lifetimes or for a determined number of years. The income is based on a fixed percentage when the trust is made and will be recalculated each year. If the trust grows, the donor receives a larger amount. If it decreases in value, the donor receives a corresponding smaller amount of income.
- Charitable deductions can be taken over a five year period.
- If stocks and bonds are used, capital gains tax will be avoided.
- Income is taxable.

Income tax is based on the amount of the gift, the ages of beneficiaries of the trust, and the amount of income received. Generally speaking, the smaller the payout rate, the larger the charitable deduction. Estate taxes can be reduced using a charitable unitrust.

Please inform both your attorney and Stony Point Center.

If you name the Center in your will or as a beneficiary of a trust, insurance policy, or retirement plan, please explicitly inform your attorney or financial advisor and Stony Point Center of your gift. We recommend that you consult a tax advisor or attorney if you have questions.
